Book Review Nyerere The Early Years By Thomas Molony

I clearly remember Reynold's debut Opposite of Always being the first book I read in 2019 and to this day, I still think about it at least once a week. So, obviously, I had very high expectations for his sophomore novel Early Departures and I'm glad to report that, once again, Reynolds left me speechless.. Early Departures is the story of Jamal's best friend Q dying in a freak accident ...

Parents need to know that in Early Departures, a speculative novel by Justin A. Reynolds (The Opposite of Always), an African American teen, Jamal, gets a second chance to reconcile with his recently deceased friend, Q, when an experimental medical procedure brings the boy to life for a short time. Grief is the primary topic: Jamal lost both parents in a car accident, and Q lost his father to ...
