Question: "How does the sovereignty of God impact my everyday life?" Answer: The sovereignty of God refers to the fact that God is in complete control of the universe. A belief in God's sovereignty is distinct from fatalism, which denies human free will. Humans are able to make genuine choices that have real consequences.

How do man's free will and God's sovereignty work together in salvation? Before any explanation of the way God's sovereignty works alongside man's free will can be attempted, it is important to define these terms. A basic biblical description of God's sovereignty is His kingship, His rule, and the fact that He has the final authority in everything.

Evangelism and the Sovereignty of God by J. I. Packer ...

Before we truly understand the sovereignty of God in salvation, we often think the burden is on us to “produce” decisions for Christ. We act as if a person’s salvation is dependent on us. So when we share the Gospel and it is rejected, we somehow think we failed to talk that person into believing and that we need a more clever or polished presentation of the plan of salvation.
